Letter CP 30/31 22-1-36 from Dr J. J. Robinson, Durban Surgeon requesting to be informed whether in case Contribute Rs 200 p.m. from January 1936 towards his Provident Fund subscription

CB file 112-31; 16-4 leading to his G.O. of 17.8.32 (Hay 2) according to which you have decided to Contribute Rs 200/- p.m. towards his P.F. is just so. It is understood from the Comptroller's office that Dr Robinson was subscribing Rs 200/-. Further, Govt. have stated in their letter of 17.8.32 to Dr. Robinson that his Contribution was fixed at a Specially high rate in Consideration of the fact that the first five years of Service was without P.F. (Hay 6)

Under the circumstances the present request of Dr Robinson to be permitted to Contribute Rs 200/- is for orders.

Draft 30/1 It is noted that in the case of Sir Charles Todhunter permission

Govt have as a special case sanctioned a contribution to Dr Robinson's Provident Fund ~~at the rate~~ Rs 200/- a month ($\frac{1}{10}$th of his pay) against the rate of $\frac{1}{16}$ of pay allowed in the Electrical Dept and $\frac{1}{12}$th of pay allowed in Railway Dept.

What Dr Robinson now asks for, appears to be only permission for himself to contribute at Rs 400 p.m., (without raising the Govt. contribution which would remain at Rs 200). Compound Interest at the rate of ~~4~~ 4½ p.c. seems to be allowed on P.F. subscriptions & the request is equivalent to giving permission for his investing money with Govt. at this rate

U.O. No.S.P.F.171 dated 12-2-1936

Returned with compliments.

As per State Provident Fund Rule 6, the maximum rate of subscription to the State Provident Fund is 15 5/8 percent of the pay of subscriber or annas two and pies six in the rupee. So, the maximum amount which Dr.Robinson can contribute to the Fund on his pay of Rs 2,000/- is Rs 313/- per mensem. Dr. Robinson wants to subscribe Rs 400/- a month. This will be in excess of the rate permissible by State Provident Fund Rule.

In the present condition of the money market, it does not appear to be advisable nor desirable to relax the rule to permit of subscriptions in excess of the maximum, necessitating thereby the payment of a larger sum in the shape of interest, since each case may become a precedent for others to quote.

In all cases of Contributory Provident Funds, the contribution by the employer is generally equal to that given as contribution by Government as in the case of Railway Provident Fund.

If the Government contribution already sanctioned by Government remains unaltered, he may be permitted to contribute at the maximum rate at 15 5/8 per cent on his pay, under rule 6 of the S.P.F.Rules (i.e., at Rs 313/- a month).

During the first five years of his service, Dr. Robinson was not entitled to any Provident Fund. (From 15.8.1927 to 14.8.1932).

H D

When his services were extended in 1932 by five more years, he was given the concession of P.F. In view of the fact that in his earlier contract there was no provision for this, the Govt. contribution during the extended period of 5 years was "fixed generously" at Rs 200 per month with the provision that it would not have retrospective effect Re: rate of his own Contribution to the Fund, he wanted permission to Contribute Rs 400 p.m but Govt. allowed him to Contribute at Rs 313/- a month.
